§9-60 Authority. Authority for this Ethics Ordinance derives from Wis. Stat. §19.59(1m).

§9-61 Statutes Incorporated

- A. The following sections of the Wisconsin Statutes, as amended from time-to-time are incorporated by reference and made a part of this Ordinance: §19.01, §19.21, §§19-81-19.98, §19.59 and §§946.10-946.18.
- B. Board members shall comply with the sections of the Wisconsin Statutes incorporated in this Ordinance and failure to do so shall constitute a violation of this Ordinance.

§9-62 Declaration of Policy

The proper operation of democratic government requires that public officials and employees be independent, impartial and responsible to the people; that public office not be used for personal gain; and that the public have confidence in the integrity of its government. In recognition of these goals, this Ordinance applies to all officials and employees of the county, whether elected or appointed, and to members of county boards and commissions. The purpose of this Ordinance is to establish guidelines for ethical standards of conduct for all such officials and employees by setting forth those acts or actions that are incompatible with the best interests of the county and by directing disclosure by such officials and employees of private financial or other interests in matters affecting the county. Nothing contained in this Ordinance is intended to deny to any individual the rights granted by the United States Constitution, the state constitution, the laws of the state, or the rights stated by labor agreements negotiated with certified employee bargaining representatives, or the rights accorded individuals by virtue of resolutions or ordinance of the county board or by any other provision of law.

The proper operation of county government demands that:

- Green Lake County officials and employees be independent, impartial and responsible to the people;
- Decisions be made in the proper channels of the county governmental structure;
- County offices should not be used for personal gain; and,
- County business should be conducted in such a way as to re-enforce the public's confidence in its integrity.

§9-63 Purpose

The purpose of this Ordinance is to establish ethical standards of conduct for all County officials and employees by identifying those acts or actions that are not compatible with the best interests of the County. Because representatives of the County are drawn from society, they cannot and should not be without all personal and economic interest in the decisions and policies of government. Citizens who are appointed to serve as County officials and employees retain their rights as citizens to personal and economic interests. Therefore, the standards of ethical conduct for County officials and employees must distinguish between minor and inconsequential conflicts which are unavoidable and those conflicts which are substantial and material. The provisions of this Ordinance, and such rules and regulations that may be established, are to be interpreted in the context of the above principles and are deemed to be in the best interest of the public.

§9-64 Applicability. This Ordinance applies to every county official and employee.

§9-65 Definitions

Members of the Board of Supervisors act on behalf of and for the welfare of the people in their respective districts and for the benefit of the County as a whole.
- B. Individual Supervisors exercise the authority and responsibility of their position only when the Board of Supervisors is in session, but the public regards the person as a member of the Board of Supervisors 24-hours a day. §9-70 Complaints from the Public

- A. At times, a person or group may confront a single Board member with a problem or complaint that should be handled by management personnel. Each Board member must decide how much time one can spend on complaints and what courtesy is appropriate. The official Board of Supervisors policy is:

- B. No member of the Board of Supervisors shall consider a complaint from any employee unless the member has determined that the complainant has gone through the normal chain of command, including the County Administrator. Employees should be directed to the Personnel Policies and Procedure Manual for the proper chain of command for complaints.

If the official or employee will not be involved with the contract in an official capacity, the contract may be allowed only if awarded through a process of public notice and competitive bidding in conformity with all applicable laws. This provision is intended to comply with, and in no way contradict or invalidate the guidelines in Wis. Stat. §946.13.
